

EXHIBIT H

ILYAS J. RONA

Ilyas J. Rona is a founding partner of the Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC. For well over a decade, Mr. Rona has successfully represented plaintiffs in various types of complex civil litigation. Mr. Rona has helped his clients obtain hundreds of millions of dollars in favorable recoveries.

Mr. Rona has successfully litigated large commercial cases, such as fraud claims, consumer protection actions, attorney and accountant malpractice, insurance disputes, and bankruptcy litigation. Mr. Rona has also successfully litigated qui tam actions under the false claims act. He has helped his clients and their families achieve significant compensation in cases for wrongful death or personal injury, including industrial/construction accidents, medical malpractice, and negligence cases. And he has helped his clients achieve fair compensation in employment cases involving wrongful termination and retaliation.

Successful representations include the following matters:

- Mr. Rona assisted a bankruptcy trustee in recovering $7.4 million from insurance companies that provided insurance to Molten Metal Technology's officers and directors.
- Mr. Rona also assisted Molten Metal Technology's bankruptcy trustee in recovering $9.6 million in settlement of claims that Lockheed Martin Corp. received an avoidable preference through a restructuring of its joint venture with MMT that was designed to avoid tax liability and remove the lone valuable asset before it entered receivership.
- Mr. Rona also assisted the bankruptcy trustee in recovering $3.5 million to settle claims that Molten Metal Technology's other corporate partner, CBS/Westinghouse, received a fraudulent transfer by coercively divesting its half interest in a nuclear waste treatment plant by selling it at a grossly inflated price.
- Mr. Rona was a member of the trial team that obtained a $142 million verdict against Pfizer for fraudulent marketing of the drug Neurontin for various off-label uses.
- Mr. Rona assisted a construction worker in recovering $1.6 million from the owner of a backhoe who negligently failed to ensure a safe work area, which caused the backhoe to strike the worker in the back.
- Mr. Rona conducted the discovery in a non-intervened qui tam case against Pfizer relating to the off-label marketing of the drug Detrol.

- Mr. Rona assisted the family of an electrical sign installer in recovering $2.4 million in compensation from the Holyoke Mall's owner after the sign installer was electrocuted while replacing interior neon lighting at the mall that was susceptible to becoming energized.

Bar Admissions

U.S. Court of Appeals 1st Circuit, 2005
U.S. District Court District of Massachusetts, 2001
Massachusetts, 1999

Education

Northwestern University School of Law, Chicago, Illinois.
J.D. - 1998
Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island
A.B. (Magna Cum Laude) - 1995. Major: Political Science

LEONARD E. MILLIGAN III

Len Milligan is a founding partner of the Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC. His practice focuses on litigation in state and federal courts.

Every year since 2009, Mr. Milligan has been named a 'Rising Star' by the editors of New England Super Lawyers and Boston Magazine. In 2010, he was a scholarship recipient to the National Criminal Defense College, learning and working with ninety-six of the best lawyers from around the country on cutting edge trial issues. In 2011, Len was featured by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly and the Massachusetts Bar Association's Excellence in the Law Awards as an "Up & Coming" Lawyer.

Mr. Milligan is a member of adjunct faculty at Northeastern University School of Law, where he teaches a clinical course in Criminal Advocacy. He also teaches courses in trial advocacy each fall at the Criminal Justice Institute at Harvard Law. Mr. Milligan also teaches Zealous Advocacy for MCLE and CPCS. Len has given expert legal commentary on Fox, ABC, NPR, and WEEL.

Mr. Milligan represents companies, large and small, in business litigation matters with serious consequences. His thorough work product and unique approach to dealing with opposing counsel often sets him apart from other litigators in the field. Many of the firm's largest business litigation clients were referred to us by former opposing counsel that, for one reason or another, needed to pass along a needy client to another attorney.

Len Milligan has extensive experience in serious felony criminal defense litigation and has represented hundreds of people in state and federal courts. He is certified by the Committee for Public Counsel Services (CPCS) to represent individuals in Superior and Appellate Courts in Massachusetts, and prides himself on his reputation among his peers as a dedicated and focused lawyer.

Mr. Milligan is a member of the Board of Directors for the not-for-profit USA Ski Cross, which fields the Ski Cross team representing the United States in World Cup and Olympic competition.

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts
U.S. District Court District of Massachusetts

Education

New England School of Law, Boston, Massachusetts
J.D.

University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont
(Philosophy, Economics)

Faculty Appointments

Trial Advocacy, Harvard Law School
Criminal Advocacy and Clinic, Northeastern School of Law
MCLE/CPCS Zealous Advocacy

Honors and Awards

New England SuperLawyers Magazine–Rising Star, 2009 – 2015
Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly – Excellence in the Law, 2011
Scholarship recipient to the National Criminal Defense College

Professional Associations and Memberships

National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, Member, 2010
Massachusetts Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, Member, 2007

MICHAEL J. DURAN

Mike Duran is a partner at Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC and manages the firm's Colorado Offices in Denver and Aspen.

Mr. Duran focuses on real estate development, land use, lending, foreclosure, venture capital, commercial litigation, and bankruptcy litigation. His clients include individuals, businesses, municipalities, and non-profits from Colorado's Front Range to the Western Slope of the Rocky Mountains.

Prior to joining Milligan Rona, Mr. Duran worked for Rider & Quesenberry, LLP, a law firm that served as the court appointed Receiver for Valley Mortgage, Inc. (In re: Valley Mortgage, Inc., No. 10-19101-SBB), a multi-million dollar real estate based Ponzi scheme. Mr. Duran has significant experience pursuing UFTA claw-back claims in state courts, federal district courts, and bankruptcy courts.

Bar Admissions

Colorado
Massachusetts
U.S. District Court District of Colorado

Education

University of Minnesota Law School, Minneapolis, Minnesota
J.D.
Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts
B.A. Major: English / Philosophy

Professional Associations and Memberships

Colorado Bar Association
Pitkin County Bar Association

JIN-HO KING

Jin-Ho King is a founding partner in Milligan Rona's Boston office. He concentrates his practice in appellate litigation, with a particular focus on criminal appeals and post-conviction matters. He has experience with all stages of the criminal process, having argued before the District and Municipal Courts, the Superior Court, the Appeals Court, and the Supreme Judicial Court, and he has obtained reversals in both state and federal appellate courts. He also litigates civil-forfeiture matters and has recovered hundreds of thousands of dollars from the government for his clients.

Mr. King also has specific experience representing litigants accused of financial wrongdoing, including defendants charged with fraud, larceny by a fiduciary, and embezzlement.

Prior to joining Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC, Mr. King was an associate at a small Boston-based litigation firm for several years. Mr. King has also worked as a summer associate at a large law firm in Boston, as a public defender intern with the Committee for Public Counsel Services, and as an English editor and translator for an international law firm in China and Taiwan.

Mr. King received his Bachelor of Arts from Cornell University and his Juris Doctor with Honors from the George Washington University Law School. In law school, he served as the editor-in-chief of the George Washington International Law Review. Mr. King speaks fluent Mandarin Chinese.

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts
New York
U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts
U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit

Education

The George Washington University Law School, Washington, District of Columbia (Juris Doctor with Honors. Editor-in-Chief, The George Washington International Law Review)
Cornell University, Ithaca, New York
(Bachelor of Arts; Major: English)

Professional Associations and Memberships

American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division
2016–2018 Liaison, Death Penalty Representation Project Special Committee
2016–2017 Co-Chair, Criminal Justice Committee
2015–2016 Senior Content Editor
Massachusetts Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

Languages

English
Mandarin Chinese

Recent Published Opinions

Commonwealth v. Firmin, 89 Mass. App. Ct. 62, 46 N.E.3d 558 (2016)
Bradley v. Sugarbaker, 809 F.3d 8 (1st Cir. 2015)
Commonwealth v. Cullity, 470 Mass. 1022, 25 N.E.3d 313 (2015)
Commonwealth v. Shea, 467 Mass. 788, 7 N.E.3d 1028 (2014)

GREGORY N. CORBIN

Greg Corbin is an associate with Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC, practicing in both civil litigation and real-estate transactions.

Mr. Corbin focuses on complex litigation, fraud cases, business litigation, bankruptcy litigation, employment, Wage Act, civil rights cases, wrongful death, and medical malpractice. Mr. Corbin began working with Leonard Milligan in 2011 as an intern during his second year of law school at Boston University and participated in preparation for a fraud trial. In 2013, Mr. Corbin began working as an associate for Len Milligan and participated in two federal trials.

Mr. Corbin has also developed a successful employment, wrongful termination, and Wage Act practice, managing and successfully prosecuting and defending employment cases. Mr. Corbin also works on residential and commercial real estate transactions, aiding clients in negotiations, project funding, and closings.

Bar Admissions

Colorado
Massachusetts
U.S. District Court District of Massachusetts

Education

Boston University School of Law, Boston, Massachusetts
Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas

KASEY A. EMMONS

Kasey Emmons is an associate with the firm, practicing in both civil and criminal litigation.

Ms. Emmons joined Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC as an associate in 2016. Prior to joining Milligan Rona Duran & King LLC, Ms. Emmons served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Amy Blake of the Massachusetts Appeals Court. Ms. Emmons also worked as a legal intern for several practitioners in Boston, assisting on cases involving criminal, civil, and immigration law.

Ms. Emmons received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Vermont in 2013, and her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from New England Law | Boston in 2016. In law school, she served as a Comment and Note Editor of the New England Law Review.

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts
Vermont
U.S. District Court District of Massachusetts

Education

New England Law | Boston, Boston, Massachusetts
University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont